

HRB-TMRN Training Funding Scheme 2018

Scheme Summary:

- Apply for up to €2,000 to facilitate trial methodology training in your institution in our new rolling funding scheme.
- Bring specialist training and expertise to your research team to help build capacity in Ireland.
- Increase your team's networking and collaboration potential through increased networking with international experts.

Scheme Details:

From April 2018, the HRB-TMRN will open an ongoing rolling funding call to fund training events nationally, which will help address the knowledge gaps in trial methodology.

Research teams are invited to submit a short proposal by email, which will be considered for funding on a fortnightly basis.

Up to €2,000 is available per call to fund a variety of training events.

The training must have relevance to trial methodology or methodology related to systematic reviews of randomised trials.

Applications will be subject to peer-review assessment and is subject to availability of funding based on demand of applications. The HRB-TMRN will fund a maximum of 5 training events annually through this call.
